NO MAN IS STRONGER THAN HIS STOMACH.

Let the greatest athlete have dyspepsia and his muscles would soon fail. Physical strength is derived from food. If a man has insufficient food he loses strength. If he has no food he dies. Food is converted into nutrition through the stomach and bowels. It depends on the strength of the stomach to what extent food eaten is digested and assimilated. People can die of starvation who have abundant food to eat, when the stomach and its associate organs of digestion and nutrition do not perform their duty. Thus the stomach is really the vital organ of the body. If the stomach is "weak" the body will be weak also, because it is upon the stomach the body relies for its strength. And as the body, considered as a whole, is made up of its several members and organs, so the weakness of the body as a consequence of "weak" stomach will be distributed among the organs which compose the body. If the body is weak because it is ill-nourished that physical weakness will be found in all the organs—heart, liver, kidneys, etc. The liver will be torpid and inactive, giving rise to biliousness, loss of appetite, weak nerves, feeble or irregular action of heart, palpitation, dizziness, headache, backache and kindred disturbances and weaknesses.

Mr. Louis Pare, of Quebec, writes: "For years after my health began to fail, my head grew dizzy, eyes pained me, and my stomach was sore all the time, while everything I would eat would seem to lie heavy like lead on my stomach. The doctors claimed that it was sympathetic trouble due to dyspepsia, and prescribed for me, and although I took their powders regularly yet I felt no better. My wife advised me to try Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery—and stop taking the doctor's medicine. She bought me a bottle and we soon found that I began to improve, so I kept up the treatment. I took on flesh, my stomach became normal, the digestive organs worked perfectly and I soon began to look like a different person. I can never cease to be grateful for what your medicine has done for me and I certainly give it highest praise."

Don't be wheedled by a penny-grabbing dealer into taking inferior substitutes for Dr. Pierce's medicines, recommended to be "just as good."

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicide on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicide speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleansing the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it allays that itching which dandruff will cause. Newbro's Herpicide effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out, and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicide stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Instructor Charged with Murder.

The Cambridge, Mass., police last night issued a warrant for the arrest of Erich Muenter, an instructor in German at Harvard University, on a charge of murdering his wife in Cambridge about two weeks ago. It is alleged that Mrs. Muenter's death was caused by arsenic. The body was taken to Chicago on April 17, but the case was not made public until yesterday evening. Muenter is 35 years old and lived in Cambridge. His wife was formerly Miss Leone K. Krends, of Chicago.

The attention of the authorities was called to the case just after the woman's death, April 16. Ten days before that time a child was born to Mrs. Muenter, who was attended by a faith-cure doctor and by two nurses of the same cult. The physician was a Mrs. Nicherson, of Winchester. The nurses are both residents of Cambridge—a Miss Case and Miss Derrick. Some time after the child was born two regular physicians, Drs. Frederick W. Taylor and Herbert McIntyre, were called. Both decided that Mrs. Muenter was suffering from some ailment of the stomach. They prescribed for her, but later, it is alleged, both withdrew because they ascertained their directions were not being followed. Mrs. Muenter died April 16.

Muenter applied to Dr. McIntyre for his signature to the certificate of death, but Dr. McIntyre decided that the case needed investigation and notified the medical examiner, who performed an autopsy and sent the stomach to Prof W. F. Whitney, of the Harvard Medical School. Muenter and the two nurses were then permitted to take the body to Mrs. Muenter's former home in Chicago. The party left Cambridge April 17.

Yesterday a report of the analysis of the stomach was received by Medical Examiner Swan. Professor Whitney reported that he had found marked traces of arsenic and District Attorney Sanderderson notified the Cambridge police. A warrant for Muenter, charging him with the murder of his wife, was issued and the Chicago police have been notified to hold the man if he can be found. Arrangements are being made to send out circulars containing a complete description of him.

The authorities are investigating Muenter's history, and it is probable the Chicago police and the Lawrence (Kan.) authorities will be asked to assist them. Muenter was born in Germany and formerly taught school in Chicago.

The university authorities stated last night that Muenter was appointed instructor in German nearly two years ago, while he was stationed at the University of Kansas. He at no time had acted as professor at Harvard, but received his appointment as instructor temporarily—that is, from year to year. He was serving his second year in Cambridge. He has not resigned. Since his departure, April 17, his whereabouts has not been positively known.

Charged with Murdering Rival.

Proceeding on the theory that Letitia Glover, the woman found slain Tuesday night in Sylvester Luttrell's room in Bristol, Va., had been murdered in a jealous rage by another woman, the police yesterday at the coroner's inquest presented damaging testimony against Jamie Ramsey, whom, it is alleged, Luttrell had abandoned for the Glover woman, and who was arrested yesterday upon suspicion.

Disinterested witnesses testified to having heard Jamie Ramsey make repeated threats against Letitia Glover. According to one witness, she said on one occasion, when referring to her hatred of Letitia Glover: "I will kill her if it sends me to hell."

It also was testified that Jamie Ramsey had confessed that on several occasions she dressed in men's clothes and hid near Luttrell's room to see Letitia Glover enter.

While this testimony was being presented, the police searched Jamie Ramsey's house and found a bloody handkerchief and an apron with splotches that apparently had been made by blood, but had been washed off, the condition of the apron being such as to indicate that the washing had been confined to the stained spots.

Luttrell's children were on the witness stand yesterday afternoon. They said that their father had not been inside their home in four years, and that they had carried his meals to him all that time. Luttrell's estrangement from his wife, the children stated, dated back to the time when he began to keep company with Jamie Ramsey.

Alexandria Gazette AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 28, 1906.

MR. WILLIAMS, the democratic floor leader in the House, formally accepted yesterday the republican challenge to make the tariff the chief issue in the coming congressional campaign. The statement of Speaker Cannon that if the people of the country want tariff revision they should vote the democratic ticket, and the speech of Thursday of Mr. Hepburn, of Iowa, advocating the continuance of the stand-pat policy, were made the foundations for an elaborate and forceful speech by Mr. Williams, in which he declared that if the republicans refuse to change existing tariff schedules, then the democrats will be placed in a position where they will change them. There was in Mr. Williams's speech and manner a note of confidence that tariff revision is rapidly looming up as an important issue that aroused the enthusiasm of the democrats and held the attention of the republicans. Taking up the speech of Mr. Hepburn, wherein Mr. Hepburn declares as untrue the statements that American-made steel rails had been sold cheaper in Canada and in Mexico than in the United States, Mr. Williams said that the late Secretary of War Lamont, when he was connected with the Northern Pacific, had told him that steel rails made in this country had been sold for less price in Canada than in the United States, and that James K. Hill had so testified.

THE PEOPLE of the Sixth Alabama district have seen fit to turn down Mr. Bankhead, who has represented them long and faithfully in the House of Representatives, and to put in his place Capt. R. P. Hobson, the man who did not block Santiago harbor, though he and his many friends said he did. Mr. Bankhead is a Confederate veteran who served with credit in the war and for twenty years has been one of the useful members of the House, while his successful opponent has had no experience in legislative matters and, like many others, will be, for some time at least, a cipher in the lower house of Congress. But the Alabamians made the change. An Alabama admirer of Capt. Hobson declares that the captain is "a Jefferson, Jackson, Tilden, Cleveland and John Paul Jones rolled into one." This induces the New York Tribune to remark that there will evidently be some San Francisco-like disturbances when Hobson begins to make good in the next House of Representatives.

As a guest of honor at the recent Jefferson Day dinner of the New York Democratic Club, Mayor McClellan declared that there was a spirit of disorder and lawlessness, of unrest and hopelessness sweeping round the world, masking under the names of socialism and collectivism, but which "has for its object subversion of existing law and order, and will ultimately manifest itself by the flaming torch and the red flag of anarchy." He said that spirit was with us in the United States today, and he thought democracy must make the fight against it.

DR. DOYEN, the French specialist who devised a serum for the treatment of cancer a few years ago, now declares that he has effected a cure by inoculation with the yeast bacillus. This announcement really discredits his previous one. If he was fully satisfied with his first remedy why should he seek another? Again, if he has lost faith in an expedient that he formerly regarded as useful would not the public do well to wait awhile before trying his latest one?

THE IMMIGRANT officials at New York now estimate that the total arrivals for the current year will reach 1,100,000, whereas the greatest record of the past was 800,000. During the last week over 45,000 immigrants arrived, making a new weekly record. This country is rapidly being filled with a class of people from Europe that make most undesirable citizens, while the thrifty and hard-working Chinese who would make good farm hands are rigidly excluded.

TO TEST the title of Mayor McClellan, of New York, to his office, W. R. Hearst has asked Attorney General Mayer to start quo warranto proceedings, although it is only a short time before the date after which the ballots may be destroyed. Mr. Hearst has been trying to secure a recount through the courts and the legislature, and the belief is growing that he is aiming to make his campaign for the governorship as a martyr.

SAN MARINO, the smallest and oldest sovereign State of Europe, has just concluded an extradition treaty with the United States, the Senate having looked it up in the gazetteers and "The Statesman's Year Book." The little republic is small, but it is select and does not desire to increase its population by the addition of American refugees.

THE ratification by the United States Senate of the Alaska boundary agreement finally places that dispute, which once threatened a disturbance of the peaceful relations of the United States, among the res adjudicatæ. It is one of the victories of peace of which both parties to the controversy may be proud.

From Washington.

(Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.)

Washington, April 28.

On Wednesday or Thursday of next week it is probable that the Senate will begin the consideration of the pending amendments to the railroad rate bill, speeches to be limited to ten minutes each. This will bring the final vote on the bill within measurable distance. There have been a great many amendments offered. The indications are that the earliest possible time for a vote on the passage of the completed bill will be the 8th or 9th of May. There are three speeches yet to be delivered. Senator Clarke will talk on Monday, Senator Daniel will probably occupy Tuesday, and Senator Rayner, who has been asked by Senator Bailey to close the debate for the democratic side, is expected to take the floor Wednesday. The committee on privileges and elections will meet on Tuesday to consider its report in the Reed Smoot case, involving the right of the Mormon Senator to retain his seat. The understanding is that a final vote shall be taken on Friday. There is little doubt that a majority of the committee is opposed to Smoot, but the principal fight in the committee is expected to come on the question as to whether the Senate can exclude him or shall expel him.

In the House the interesting event of the week will be the discussion and passage of the naval appropriation bill, with its provision for the construction of a monster battleship exceeding in size the Dreadnaught of the British navy, and carrying a million dollars for the purchase of submarine boats. It is the hope of the leaders to get the bill out of the way next week, although Monday will be given up to business under suspension of the rules. Friday will be claims day, and part of Tuesday may be devoted to the agricultural appropriation bill if it is not passed this afternoon.

"One first class battleship, carrying as heavy armor and as powerful armament as any known vessel of its class, to have the highest practicable speed and greatest practicable radius of action, and to cost, exclusive of armament and armor, not exceeding $6,000,000" is provided for under the head of the "Naval Program," reported to the House, today, by Representative Foss, chairman of the naval affairs committee in the naval appropriation bill. The bill carries a total of $99,784,215. The naval programme further includes three torpedo boat destroyers to cost, exclusive of armament, not to exceed $750,000 each;" and sub-surface or sub-marine torpedo boats to cost not more than $1,000,000. Under the head of pay off the navy, the bill carries $22,924,816, of which $13,500,000 is for the pay and allowances of 37,500 officers and enlisted men; $5,916,049 pay of 2,871 officers, on the active list; and $1,759,849, pay of 710 officers on the retired list.

The report accompanying the naval bill contains a table showing the strength of the principal naval powers, with the United States fourth. Great Britain is first, France, second, Germany, third.

For two hours today John B. Thayer, fourth vice-president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, struggled against the admission to the Interstate Commerce Commission, investigating the bituminous coal situation in the East, that not a ton of coal could reach tidewater without the Pennsylvania determining the rate. The commission asked him to reconcile the minutes of the secret meeting of the tidewater traffic association of railroads, in which all the traffic managers of the three roads, B. and O., the C. and O. and the N. and W. protested against the increased rate proposed by the Pennsylvania as unreasonable, but yet voted for it, with his statement that the Pennsylvania did not control them. He said these traffic managers were just talking, and that they didn't mean what they said. He was quite sure that Mr. Ingalls, of the C. and O., was parrying for position in his protest at that time.

President Roosevelt received a visit today from a delegation of prominent Italians from New York and Baltimore who are here in the interests of the bill presented by Congressman Sulzer, of New York, which, if passed, will make October 12th a national holiday in honor of Christopher Columbus. Mr. Sulzer escorted the delegation to the White House and made a little speech to the President advocating the establishment of "Columbus Day." The President expressed his willingness to aid the movement in every way in his power.

A telegram received from General Greely, at San Francisco says: "General conditions improving though very slowly. Efficient action in handling relief supplies being impracticable until arrival of additional troops. Health continues unusually good without any signs of epidemics. Relief supplies arriving in enormous quantities, threatening congestion of railway. Difficulties regarding storage are daily increasing. Sanitation is considered at present the most critical phase. Water supply slowly increasing in city."

The Department of Commerce and Labor is investigating the report that Japanese interests are planning to make a wholesale purchase of the magnificent American steamers plying the Pacific.

It was learned today that the social embargo at the White House against Senator Tillman has been removed. He was invited to the reception given the French naval officers last Monday. It was noticed, however, that he did not attend. This is the first invitation of the kind extended to him since his fight with Senator McLaurin, of South Carolina, on the floor of the Senate three years ago.

In a telegram from San Francisco today General Greely announced seventeen additional deaths.

President Roosevelt today received the following dispatch from Governor Pardee, of California: "In order to prevent possible disturbances, I respectfully request the federal forces be continued to assist as has been since the destruction of the city of San Francisco and other local cities by the earthquake and fire. The legislature is not in session and cannot be conveyed forthwith."

England and Turkey.

Naples, April 28.—As a result of dispatches received by King Edward from the home government in regard to the crisis with Turkey, which has arisen over the occupation of Tabas by Turkish troops, the British monarch has decided to hurry back to London by the overland route and will start on Monday. Queen Alexandra will return to England by water.

News of the Day.

The ceremonies and services in connection with the celebration of the centenary of the Baltimore Cathedral will begin tomorrow.

The feature of yesterday's programme of the Confederate Veterans' reunion at New Orleans was the parade, in which marines from the cruiser Columbia participated.

Capt. Carlton Shafer, who commanded a company of Virginia Military Institute cadets in the civil war, and who was a member of the Maryland legislature, died in Laporte, Ind., yesterday.

Testimony of witnesses having been excluded by the ecclesiastical court which is trying Rev. Dr. Crapsey on charges of heresy, arguments for and against the accused were presented at Batavia, N. Y., yesterday.

The Supreme Court of the United States yesterday ceased the call of the docket for the term. The court will adjourn May 28 and between now and that date will meet at intervals and only for the purpose of announcing decisions and hearing motions.

According to the City Engineer's measurements the burnt area in San Francisco is a trifle less than four square miles. Heavy winds blew down walls yesterday and a number of pedestrians had narrow escapes. Poor workmanship is believed to have caused the collapse of the Stanford University buildings.

Mrs. M. L. Standifer, who acknowledged she shot and killed her sister because the latter won the affections of her husband, was last night acquitted by an Atlanta, Ga., jury. The trial was full of dramatic features and practically the only evidence offered was the statement of Mrs. Standifer. She is a frail woman and went into the witness box with her babe in her arms. She told how she discovered the liaison between her sister and her husband, and how she begged them to break it off, but they only laughed at her. "Then," said Mrs. Standifer, "I got me a pistol, went to Chappalle's room, and killed her as she was dressing."

CONGRESSIONAL.

Aside from the conclusion by Mr. Spooner of his two-day speech on the rate question in reply to Mr. Bailey, the Senate proceedings yesterday were again dull and uninteresting. Mr. Tillman made another ineffectual attempt to get an agreement for a vote on the rate bill, but was opposed by Mr. Foraker.

Mr. John Sharp Williams replied to the tariff speeches of Messrs. Hepburn and Boutell. His speech will be concluded today. During his remarks he said: "The intellectual conclusions of any one man do not make his conclusions binding upon the whole democratic party (referring to Bryan). If you don't revise the tariff, we will. If you don't admit Oklahoma and Indian Territory as one State, we will. If you don't pass a just and reasonable rate bill, we will. Every man who worships the schedules of the Dingley bill as a fetich in the temple of Diana is doomed to defeat."

During the day 315 private pension bills were passed.

General debate on the agriculture bill will end at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

The Coal Situation.

The anthracite mine operators, through their sub-committee of seven, at a meeting in New York yesterday drew up a reply to the latest proposition of the mineworkers for an adjustment of the existing difference in the anthracite fields, in which they refuse to modify their position heretofore announced. The operators call upon the miners to renew for a period of three years the award of the anthracite strike commission or else accept the operators' proposition that the strike commission arbitrate the question as to what changes, if any, shall be made in the scale of wages fixed by the commission in its original award or accept the responsibility for a strike. The owners allege that this demand for a ten per cent increase would burden coal consumers.

Conditions in San Francisco.

San Francisco, April 28.—Official figures of the dead and injured of the earthquake made public by General Greely showed 295 bodies and 593 injured, of whom 150 are seriously hurt. Plans for rebuilding the city along new lines are taking form, the supervisors already receiving numerous applications for building permits. Leading architects incline to a complete revision of regulations as a result of the lessons from the fire. Temporary one-story wooden or galvanized iron buildings may be erected without permits. General widening of down-town streets is likely. General Freight Agent Luce, of the Southern Pacific Company, today announced that agents throughout the country had been instructed to resume the taking of commercial freight for San Francisco.

To be Tried by Masons.

A. Chadwick Burton, the theatrical man who was recently convicted in Richmond of obtaining money under false pretenses in connection with a performance for the benefit of the Dorcas Society of the Epworth Church and who is now in jail there, will be tried by a Masonic lodge court in Philadelphia. A committee representing the lodge in Philadelphia, in which Burton holds membership, was in Richmond yesterday for the purpose of obtaining a copy of the record in the case. The trial will, of course, be a lodge affair and secret.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The French fleet, consisting of the warships Marseillaise, Aube and Conde, which were at Annapolis participating in the ceremonies attending the burial of John Paul Jones, America's first admiral, arrived at New York today. They will remain there for several days.

John Alexander Dowie will make his triumphal entry into Zion City today. Surrounded by a score of his church dignitaries, who have remained loyal through the "rebellion," the deposed "First Apostle" departed from Chicago on a special train at 2 o'clock.

A Maiden Lane, New York, jeweler yesterday received a rush order from San Francisco for 100 wedding rings. Many couples are hastening their marriage on account of the catastrophe.

A live electric light wire set fire to the Lehigh Valley Railroad passenger station at Shamokin, Pa., today. The building burned to the ground. The loss is placed at $35,000.

Snow Storm.

Malone, N. Y., April 28.—Quite a heavy snowstorm visited here last night. At five o'clock this morning the thermometer registered 30 degrees above zero.

Virginia News.

Rev. Robert A. Compton, a member of the Virginia Annual Conference, died in this home, at Hollydale, Lunenburg county, Thursday.

Mr. Julius Lee, one of the oldest citizens of Stafford, died suddenly Thursday night, at the home of his brother, Mr. George Lee, near Bethel church, aged 90 years.

The Chapman Iron, Coal and Coke Company, with furnace at Goshen, iron mines at Rich Patch and large coal interests, went into the hands of a receiver yesterday.

Fire yesterday destroyed the home of W. C. Parkinson at Hanover Courthouse. The house was one of the oldest in eastern Virginia. The loss is estimated at $8,000 to $10,000.

Rev. C. J. Holt, rector of St. John's Episcopal Church of West Point, died suddenly yesterday of heart disease. He is survived by a widow, who was Miss Marshall, of Fauquier county, and by several children. Interment will take place in Baltimore.

Mrs. Gilberta M. Whittle, widow of Dr. Conway D. Whittle, of Mecklenburg county, died at her home, in Norfolk, yesterday, in the eighty-second year of her age. She was, prior to her marriage, Miss Sinclair, daughter of Commodore Arthur Sinclair, U. S. N.

Mary Florence Bradley, hereditary princess of the Chickahomany tribe of Indians, and Wallace Allemond, a Mattaponi, living on the Pamunkey reservation, were married Thursday by Rev. P. E. Throckmorton, pastor of the Indian Baptist Church. The bride is 20 years old and pretty and a daughter of Subchief Bradley.

The committee appointed by the legislature to make an investigation of the conditions at the Virginia Military Institute will meet at the institute next Monday. The committee consists of Senators L. H. Machen, of Alexandria, and W. A. Garrett, of Henry; Delegates Granville R. Swift, of Fredericksburg, Robert E. Lee, of Fairfax, and James L. Taliaferro, of Gloucester. Delegate Swift is chairman of the committee.

The Smoot Case.

Although the Senate committee on privileges and elections does not vote on the final action in the Smoot case until next Tuesday, it is generally understood that there will be three reports on the case submitted to Congress. The majority report will recommend that the Senate declare Senator Smoot's seat in the Senate vacant and that he be removed. This will only require a majority vote to carry, like a contested election case in the House. One of the members of the committee who is with the majority is Senator Bailey, but he will submit a dissenting report, recommending the expulsion of Mr. Smoot, which will require a two-thirds vote in the Senate to pass. The minority report will recommend that Mr. Smoot be allowed to keep his seat. This report will most probably be made by Senator Foraker, and it is now expected that five senators will join with him in the report. These five are Senators Forsker, Beveridge, Dillingham, Knox and Hopkins, all republicans. The other three republican members of the committee—Senators Burrows, Dolliver and Depew—together with the five democrats—Pettus, Dubois Overman, Frazier and Bailey—unite in the majority report.

Wholesale Searching in Paris.

The widespread labor agitation in Paris took a dramatic turn yesterday when the police executed a series of searches designed to unearth a wholesale plot against the public security. The searches include the offices of branches of the labor federation and homes of labor leaders, prominent royalists and Bonspartists, and also a number of anarchists.

The suspects among the royalists and Bonspartists include the heads of several aristocratic families.

The ostensible purpose of the searches was to discover if encouragement had been given to rioting in the mining district in the north, but the authorities expected at the same time to uncover the entire plan of the present labor agitation, including any menancing features of the demonstration which is to take place May 1.

The searches were operated simultaneously early in the morning. The results in many cases were negative. There is, however, official authority for the statement that documents were received which proved that royalists and Bonapartists intrigued with the labor leaders, and liberally financed the revolutionary strike movements. The labor federation has refused to hand over its books to the police.

Arrest of a Broker.

After successfully eluding the police of many cities for two years, Alfred M. Lamar, formerly one of the biggest brokers on the Consolidated Stock Exchange of New York, with branches in many cities, was arrested at his home, in New York, yesterday afternoon. The arrest was a pathetic one. Lamar's mother, who is 80 years old, fell to her knees and begged Captain McConville to permit her son to escape. Lamar's wife also pleaded for her husband. To arrest Lamar McConville had to have the door of Lamar's house broken down. The bail was finally fixed at $7,500. One complainant against Lamar is Mrs. Isabella Von Rounds, of New Rochelle. She charges him with selling 600 shares of common stock of the American Malt Company for $4,800 and appropriating the money. Joseph McGowan, of the Consolidated National Bank, charges that Lamar swindled him out of $2,400 worth of steel common stock. The accusation against Lamar by Mrs. Von Rounds was made in December, 1904, and his indictment for grand larceny followed soon afterward. A warrant was issued for his arrest, but he escaped and was later heard from in Richmond, Washington, Baltimore, Boston and other cities. It is said that the losses by Lamar's transactions will reach $100,000.

Today's Telegraphic News

Conditions Not Serious.

London, April 28.—The correspondent of the Publishers Press learned that the house search made by police officials in Paris yesterday, and the announcement that the existence of a plot against the republic was recognized by the cabinet council is not taken seriously by any political party in France. The whole preceding is either a hoax or an electioneering manoeuvre on the part of the government. There is a precedent for the latter, M. Combes ran a fake plot in 1903 in order to break the religious resistance of Brittany where the peasants had sworn to retain the monks and nuns by main force despite the associations law. The council of ministers having declared that there was a royalist plot, the government was able to threaten prosecution on the charge of high treason any one raising his hand in defense of monks and nuns. Religious resistance thus collapsed. Today the question is not one affecting the religious, but the obtaining of a big majority at the election which will be held one week from tomorrow. The government, by virtue of the decree that a plot against the republic exists, can search a man's premises or person without notice, or arrest him in order to obtain information about the movements of the opposition. It is thus hoped to paralyze the opposition propaganda. The actual result has been to embitter the feeling against the government more than at any time since the Dreyfus crisis and to intensify the electoral struggle with better chances for the opposition.

An attempt was made today to blow up the Argenteuil railway bridge. The structure was only slightly damaged, however.

Paris, April 28.—Rioting occurred this afternoon in the Rue Paix when striking jewellers attempted to start a demonstration by cheering the strike. This caused trouble. Policemen were hurried to the spot and the rioters were dispersed. The riot followed a meeting of jewellers at the Labor Exchange.

The jewelers formed in a column and marched to the Rue Paix, singing revolutionary songs, while a red flag was carried at the head of the procession. The police had difficulty in controlling the strikers who insisted upon marching through the boulevards.

The Castellane Divorce Case.

Paris, April 28.—This was the day fixed for Count Boni de Castellane and his wife, the Countess Anna, to appear before Judge Ditte to allow the court to make the formal attempt to effect a reconciliation between the parties in the suit for divorce brought by the Countess Anna, before the court proceedings can begin. Judge Ditte was notified, however, that the meeting had been postponed until after the pending French elections. Countess Anna does not wish to injure Boni's political prospects by having his domestic troubles brought prominently before the public at this time, and agreed to the postponement for this reason. The attorneys representing both parties maintain that there has been no change in the relations of Boni and his wife, and that the status of the case is unaltered. Nevertheless the complaisance of Countess Anna in postponing the meeting before Judge Ditte in order to assist Boni to be re-elected to the Chamber of Deputies has started reports that there is a better chance of reconciliation between the estranged husband and wife. Some persons who profess to know all that has been done toward inducing Countess Anna to withdraw her suit are going so far as to make offers to bet that no suit will ever come to trial, even for a separation.

Disappearance of Father Gapon.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The mystery surrounding the disappearance of Father Gapon, former leader of the workingmen, who has not been seen or heard from since April 4, has been deepened by the arrival here, consigned to a solicitor named Margoline, of a letter containing some of the former priest's effects. The letter came from Berlin, and it enclosed Father Gapon's pocketbook, 1,300 roubles, and the key to Gapon's safe at the Credit Lyonnais, with the request that the solicitor should act according to instructions. No directions were included in the letter, however. In the pocketbook was a receipt dated April 8, the day Gapon disappeared. The letter in which the articles came was directed in a woman's handwriting, and this has added to the mystery. Nothing definite in regard to Gapon's whereabouts has been heard since he disappeared. It was reported several days ago that he had been hanged by revolutionists who discovered evidence that he was a traitor to the revolutionary cause and left his body hanging in the house where he was reported to have been lured for the purpose of allowing the revolutionaries to overhear his attempts to induce another working man to turn spy upon his companions.

Balloon Ascension.

Pittsfield, Mass., April 28.—Count Henry de la Vaux, of Paris, will make his third ascension in America this afternoon from the field in this city if the weather conditions remain favorable. His guests will be Captain Homer Hedges, president of the Aero Club of America, and Charles Jerome Edwards, of Brooklyn. Count de la Vaux will use the Centauer, his most famous balloon. The direction of the flight will probably be across the Connecticut river. On the way up from New York yesterday Captain Hedges and Mr. Edwards, representing a syndicate, purchased of the count the Centauer balloon, capacity 55,000 cubic feet, for $1,800, and the L'Orient balloon, 35,000 for $1,350. They will pay the 45 per cent. duty on the balloons, which brings the total cost of the airships up to $4 640.

Sunk by Collision.

Singapore, Straits Settlements, April 28.—The British steamer Haversham-Grange, bound for Odessa, with 3,000 Russian soldiers aboard, collided with the Bentong, a local steamer, in the Strait of Malacca. The Bentong was sunk and thirty Chinese were drowned. Seventy-one persons were saved. The forehead of the Haversham Grange was damaged.

Georgetown, April 28.—Wheat 70@85.

Reply of Operators.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 28.—John Mitchell, head of the miners' union, will receive today the official reply of the operators refusing the miners' proposal for an increase in wages. A call for a meeting next week of the scale committee to consider the reply and prepare a statement to be read at the Scranton convention of what negotiations were had with the operators to bring about an acceptance of the demands, will probably be issued today by President Mitchell. Despite the apparent gloominess of the outlook, the situation today is practically the same as it was before the miners sent their last demand to the operators.

Wilkes-Barre, Pa., April 28.—John Mitchell, president of the Mine Workers' Union, after receiving the formal reply of the operators, today, declining his latest proposal to settle the anthracite differences, issued a statement in which he said that he could not forecast what the outcome would be until the convention was held. Personally, he said, he was disappointed, and was sure that the mine workers would be disappointed that more consideration was not shown them.

Reading, Pa., April 28.—Troop C, of the State Constabulary, left here for the coal regions today. The men are loaded for anthracite strike rioters, each carrying a Winchester rifle, revolver and blackjack. They made the trip on their mounts.

After Supposed Murderer.

Chicago, April 28.—Chicago police at the instance of the authorities of Cambridge are searching for Professor Erich Muenter, of Harvard University, to serve a warrant issued in Cambridge charging uxoricide. The investigation by the police into the career of Muenter in connection with the death of his wife reveals, they claim, that for years past, the relatives of the woman have regarded Muenter as a highly cultured man of homicidal tendencies. Detectives have been informed of circumstances which they think supply a motive for a desire on the part of the professor to have the way clear for his renewed courtship of the daughter of a banker. They have been informed that just after the birth of the first child of the couple, a girl now four years old, neighbors discovered the odor of gas in Muenter's room and broke into it to find the child on a bed asleep and the professor in an adjoining room, pretending to be asleep. He was watched after that, according to his relatives. Muenter was known to them as the "iron-minded-man," because of his determined character and mysticism.

The Crapsey Trial.

Batavia, N. Y., April 28.—Today marked the end of the trial in this city of the celebrated heresy case of the Protestant Episcopal diocese again in New York against Rev. Dr. Crapsey for more than a quarter of a century the rector of St. Andrews Church in Rochester. Most of the morning's session was occupied by Edward M. Sheppard who assisted in summing up on behalf of Dr. Crapsey.

At the session this afternoon John Lord O'Brien, of Buffalo, chief counsel of the prosecution, made the closing address to the court. The trial ended with the conclusion of Mr. O'Briens summing up. Members will deliberate on the verdict next week and report to Bishop Walker. The bishop will make the findings public.

Affairs in Russia.

St. Petersburg, April 28.—The government had decided to refuse to grant indemnity to foreigners who sustained damage to their property or other losses during the revolution.

Warsaw, April 28.—Troops are being mobilized here, owing to the fear that there will be disturbances on May 1st.

Odessa, April 28.—Inspector of police Hogredico, who played an infamous part in the massacres which occurred here last October, and his orderly were fired upon this morning by concealed revolutionaries. The inspector was mortally wounded and the orderly killed.

The Olympic Games.

Athens, April 28.—The American team got a good start again today in the continuation of the Olympic games. Martin Sheridan, of the Irish Athletic Club of New York, showed his excellent condition by winning the weight putting contest. A Hungarian athlete took second place and third position was captured by Sweden. Sheridan's distance was 43 feet 4 inches. Lawson Robertson, of the Irish-American Athletic Club, New York, gained additional laurels for the American team by winning the standing long jump. His distance was two metres, 95.5 centimetres, or about 9 feet 6½ inches. Petit, of France, was second, and Martin J. Sheridan was third.

New York Stock Market.

New York, April 23.—There was no change in the market conditions during the first hour. Liquidation for speculative account was noticed. Lower prices were reached in many issues than at any time during the week, reflecting a further weakness of the market by the excessive supply of stock.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? Charged with Robbery.

Adam Glenn and his wife, Adelaide Glenn, colored, are locked up in the Alexandria county jail on charges of assault and attempted robbery. Mrs. Blanche Mammo charges that first the woman and then the woman and the man together entered her house early Wednesday morning and attempted to steal a pocketbook containing $63 The man, Mrs. Mammo alleged, seized and held her tight while the woman secured the pocketbook. According to Mrs. Mammo's statement, the Glenn woman entered the house first and took the pocketbook. Mrs. Mammo followed the woman and compelled her at the point of a pistol to drop the pocketbook. The woman later returned with her husband, when the latter held Mrs. Mammo while his wife secured the plunder. Nothing daunted, Mrs. Mammo again pursued the woman who had her property, and after a struggle wrested it from her a second time. Mrs. Mammo later notified the authorities and the arrest of Glenn and his wife followed.

Petition Dismissed.

In the Circuit Court for Alexandria county, Judge Nicol presiding, yesterday the hearing of the petition of Augustus Davis, jr., and others on the motion that Supervisor W. W. Douglas, of Arlington district, Alexandria county, be removed from office was concluded. In the written notice of the charges which were served upon Mr. Douglass several weeks ago it was stated that he had been guilty of several breaches of official duty and was of an irascible temper The charges were not taken seriously by either Mr. Douglass or his friends, by whom it was stated that they were merely trumped up in an effort to harass and annoy some of the county officials. A number of witnesses were examined yesterday, and last night, after argument, the court dismissed the petition. Mr. Douglass took the stand in his own behalf, and was represented by Attorneys R. Walton Moore and Frank Lyon, and R. C. L. Moncure appeared for the petitioners.

Opera House.

"The Power of the Church," a four-act drama, was excellently presented at the Opera House last night before a large audience. Mr. Southern played the part of Rev. Philip Dunchester in his usual good style and J. P. Tucker essayed the role of Norman Weir in an excellent manner. Mabelle Vantassell as Irene Arnold was above the average. Owing to the smallness of the stage the scenery for the acts could not be put on, so Mr. Southern announced that immediately after the show the farce-comedy "Three Hats" would be presented so as not to disappoint the audience. The farce-comedy was exceedingly laughable throughout, was excellently presented and heartily applauded. A company seldom gives two entire shows for one price of admission, but such was the case last night. The matinee this evening was well attended. The attraction tonight will be "The Lost Paradise," the play in which Mr. Southern made a hit Monday night.

Resigned.

Mr. J. T. Preston, who for the past five years has been the agent of the Southern Railway Company in Alexandria, has tendered his resignation, to take effect May 1st. His successor has not yet been appointed, though it is reported that Mr. George S Hinkins, chief clerk in the office, will be the man. Mr. Preston has received several offers of positions with other companies in the west and south. He was not as yet determined which he will accept. During Mr. Preston's residence in Alexandria he has made many friends and acquaintances, all of whom will regret to hear that he is to leave the city. He has ever been accomodating and courteous to all with whom he has had business or social relations. A report is in circulation that Mr. E. C. Joyce will soon be appointed general agent for all the railroads centering in Alexandria.

A standpipe and hose connection is to be placed on the stage and in the auditorium of the Opera House, which will be used should occasion require.

The Backward Fishing Season.

The receipts of shad continue scarce and prices have an advancing tendency They sold today at $18a21.50 per hundred for buck and $45a49 for roe. The best varieties were selling as high as 65 cents a piece in the city market this morning. The receips of herring have increased somewhat. They sold today at $4a5 per thousand for fresh and small lots; in large quantities, however, the quotations can be given at $2.50a3. The gillers in this neighborhood report more satisfactory results, one fishermen catching 27 last night.

Another meeting of the Board of Police Commissioners was held last night, when the work of investigating the working of the police force was continued. Another meeting will be held next Monday night, at which charges will be formulated against certain members of the police force for alleged violation of rules, &c. The investigation was begun by the board several weeks ago, and during its progress a number of witnesses have been examined.

Musical Examinations.

The semi-annual examinations in the music department of St. Mary's Academy took place yesterday at the Academy in the presence of the faculty and many patrons and friends of the institution. A number of young musicians were heard from one o'clock to three, and their playing was greatly enjoyed. At seven o'clock the examinations were continued when the excellent programme given below, was rendered: Chorus, Spring, vocal class; descriptive fantasie, Worrall; violins, N. Grob, M. Faber, and F. Hill; mandolin, M Finke; guitars, N. Cobb, and F. Tinsley; The Fountain, H McCormick; Careless Elegance, H. Corbett; valse, M. Faber; Gipsy dance, M. Sweeney; polka rondo, G. To Maintain a Policeman.

Among the liquor licenses granted yesterday was one to a well-known citizen with the understanding that he must, at his own expense, provide a special policeman to keep loungers away from the corner on which his store is located. This was no reflection upon the proprietor, as he is known to be a quiet and good citizen, nor have his premises been the scene of any special disorder. The only complaint urged was that certain people are wont, to sun themselves in front of place of business in the day and stand around the same at night. It seems to many that this is a movement in a good direction, but that it should not be limited to saloons but to other places of business where loafers congregate, being attracted thereto for various reasons. It is impossible for the limited number of policemen to be everywhere at once, and should there be a proviso in certain licenses the number of policemen would be increased and satisfactory conditions follow throughout the city.

The Martha Custis Bible.

Mr. G. W. Kendrick, of Philadelphia, recently purchased what is known as the Martha Custis Bible, and has restored the same to Miss Mary Custis Lee, she having just received the book by express. Miss Lee desires to express her thanks to Mr. Kendrick through the columns of the Gazette. The Martha Custis Bible, printed in 1702 in London was given to Daniel Parke Custis, the first husband of Mrs. Washington. It finally came to his grandson, Mr. George Washington Park Custis of Arlington. The Bible was stolen from Arlington during the war, and probably passed through many hands before it was purchased by Mr. Kendrick. The book is one of the most valuable relics in the country.

Box Party and Musicale.

A box party and musicale will be held in Lee Camp Hall Monday evening under the auspices of the Woman's Auxiliary to the camp. During the evening there will be rendered musical numbers from well-known talent of the city, interspersed with a sale of boxes and home-made cakes. The proceeds of this entertainment will be devoted to placing markers to the graves of Confederate soldiers, and as there are many yet to be erected, it is hoped that the people will respond to this call, and help swell the funds for this noble cause The price of admission is small, and includes refreshments.

The Braddock House Sold.

Messrs. M. B. Harlow & Co. have consummated the sale of the Braddock House property for the estate of William Hancock, of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., to Mr. F. L. Wagar, of Mobile, Ala. The purchaser states that it is his intention to commence at once the improvement of the property on the lines which he made to the old St. Mary's Academy. The above will be read with gratification by the entire community, and Messrs. Harlow & Co. are to be congratulated for disposing of the property to a gentleman who is to improve it in the manner indicated above.

In a Dangerous Position.

About two o'clock this morning Officers Smith and Bettis while on Union street, between Duke and Wolfe, found an old colored woman named Amanda Harris standing on the railroad track with her back against the bumper of a car. The officers took her from her dangerous position and sent her to her home. An engine came along a few minutes later for the purpose of making up a train, and had the woman remained where found she would undoubtedly have been killed. Some time ago the house in which the Harris woman lived on north Fairfax street was destroyed by fire.

The Invincible Baseball Club has organized for the season, with the following players: T. Martin D. Hullett, B. O'Brien, H. Zimmerman, C. Zimmerman, F. Gorman, O. Glover, E. Riston, P. Everett, J. County Bonds Burned.

The supervisors of Alexandria county Thursday night burned $17,500 worth of bonds. They had previously received them from W. C. Wibirt, the county treasurer. The bonds had been canceled and counted, and the supervisors had their clerk, George H. Tucker, to make a minute that they were paid, canceled and burned. The whole proceedings was quite formal, and the bonfire was a picturesque affair.

Case Compromised.

Constable A. J. Payne, of Fairfax county, one day this week arrested William Goram, at the instance of Charles Jacobs, who alleged that Goram had abused and threatened him. The accused was taken before Justice John R. Hall, near Pohick, but was dismissed, the case having been compromised. The complainant paid the costs of the proceedings.

Officers Lyles and Knight appearing on the scene, the combattants attempted to flee, but the officers soon ran them down and placed them under arrest.

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 28, 1906.

Letter from Culpeper.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Mitchells Station, Va., April 27.—A very heavy thunderstorm visited this section about 8 o'clock last night. The rain fell in sheets and hail rattled down with a noise resembling a musket fusilade to the injury of the young fruit buds and the tender garden vegetables. This morning after the terrible bombardment last night is all bright and serene.

The ground hog admonished the fisherman and the farmer as to the length of the winter and it was tolly on the part of both fisher and farmer to complain of the lateness for plowing and seine hauling, knowing as we do that God makes the seasons and they will arrive in due time regardless of the months, which are man's inventions and have no effect on the seasons. This is the only true spring fishing season up to the present time and I look for an abundant supply, only be prepared to handle the catch. Corn planting is well under way and the wheat, oats and grass are looking fine.

From present indications (barring a frost) the yield of fruit will be very bountiful.

Mr. Waller Yager has a pet mare with a young colt only a few days old running to pasture near his house. Last night during the storm she came up to the back door of the house and nickered for him. He came out and laid his hand on her neck and she gave another affectionate nicker and turned her head toward her colt. He started toward the stable, she and the colt following and put them indoors. Then she was satisfied. I love a horse and a dog. Who does not?

Rural free delivery permeates all this section and is quite popular. S.

Another Ocean Greyhound

The new steamship La Provence, of the French line, arrived at New York yesterday afternoon after making the trip from Havre in 5 days 23 hours and 10 minutes. It was her maiden trip and no attempt was made at records, according to officers of the line, so they were greatly pleased at her showing, and were predicting that the newcomer would settle in with a record after a few trips have limbered up her machinery.

La Provence covered a course of 3,001 miles. She left Havre at 9:30 o'clock a week ago yesterday morning and on Sunday noon had covered 593 miles. In the next 24 hours she logged 537 but some of the machinery became overheated the next day. This made a slow down necessary and the day's run was only 484 miles. Between Tuesday noon and Wednesday 508 miles were covered; the next day's run was 517, and 560 had been logged for the 24 hours ended yesterday, when Fire Island was abeam. The ship's average for the trip was 21¼ knots, and as she made a mark of 22.7 knots on her trial trip officers feel sure that her first trip was nothing more than an exercise gallop.

Wednesday the wireless operators received messages from Poldhu and Cape Cod at the same time. This communication with both continents began at 2 p. m., and lasted for nearly an hour, when Poldhu was lost. From Cape Cod came news of the San Francisco earthquake, which was printed in the ship's daily newspaper.

Another Attack By Negro.

Quickly following the attempt at criminal assault upon Miss Hunt by a negro, it was reported to the police in Washington last night by Miss Adele Arlender, of 1318 Fourteenth street northwest, that she was attacked, and a purse containing $1.76, some car tickets and other incidentals, snatched from her hand by a negro while she was walking toward an old bridge on Fourteenth street extended, yesterday evening.

Both these attacks by negroes occurred on the very edge of the city, but the police have made little progress in finding the criminals. Miss Hunt was unable to give a good description of her assailant, but Miss Arlender said the man who attacked her was a beastly looking negro, possibly 35 years of age, about five feet six inches tall, stoutly built and with a smooth face.

Danger From The Plague.

There's grave danger from the plague of Coughs and Colds that are so prevalent, unless you take Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Co'ds. Mrs. Geo Walls, of Forest City, Me., writes: "It's a Godsend to people living in climates where coughs and colds prevail. I find it quickly ends them. It prevents Pneumonia, cures LaGrippe, gives wonderful relief in Asthma and Hay Fever, and makes weak lungs strong enough to ward off Consumption, Coughs and Colds 50c and $1.00. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store. Trial bottle free.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," says Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

YES,

We Probably Have It.

A good many people make the mistake of going to Washington to get something they could buy at home, do not look for it here, just jump to the conclusion that such things are not to be had in Alexandria.

We would like to state to those contemplating purchasing a fine watch, or diamond, or other fine piece of jewelry, clock, silverware, cut glass, etc., that we have a large and complete stock of the above mentioned goods and which we offer at a lower price than is asked for the same goods in Washington.
